YOUR NEXT GOOD DAY

A Sunday with a little spin.

Three possibilities for one adult and one 10-year-old, starting in ZIP 43209. For this sample we assumed an interest in active outings and art, plus flexible dates. Your paid plan follows your own brief.

OUR PICK / PINS MECHANICAL AT EASTON

$9

Published cost for one adult and one child to bowl one game on Sunday, before any tax. Food and transport are separate.

WHY WE PICKED IT

For this sample family, a shared game makes an easy starting point: something to do together, with room to keep the rest of the day simple. Let your child be the scorekeeper or invent a victory celebration.

A SUGGESTED SUNDAY

11:00 AM	Aim for opening. Lanes are first come, first served; this is not a reservation.
FIRST UP	Play one round together. Children 12 and younger bowl free on Sundays with a paid adult game, up to three children per adult.
AFTERWARD	Let your child pick from the free arcade games. Set a separate limit for paid games or food if you want them.

No bowling-shoe rental is needed. Location: 4117 Worth Ave, Columbus. This recommendation assumes you are comfortable with a venue that also serves alcohol.

TWO MORE WAYS TO MAKE A DAY

Different mood?
We picked for that, too.

02 / A BIG-ENERGY TUESDAY

Big Air Columbus

$20 for two hours on Tuesday, versus the listed standard $31 two-hour admission. Required Big Air grip socks are extra; their price is not confirmed here. A non-jumping adult can watch free.

Our plan: pick a Tuesday that fits your schedule, check opening hours and complete the waiver. Keep food and other stops optional. This sample is a weekday alternative, not part of the Sunday itinerary.

03 / A CREATIVE LITTLE ESCAPE

Columbus Museum of Art

$0 general admission for this pair. At the main museum, children 16 and younger and one accompanying adult caregiver enter free. Museum-lot parking is $10. Closed Mondays; The Pizzuti has different pricing.

Our plan: spend about 90 minutes exploring. Each secretly choose a favorite artwork and try to guess the other person's choice. This is a Daypicked activity idea, not an organized museum program.
